

I have celiac disease and understand the importance of food labeling laws. When I was first diagnosed it was very difficult and time consuming to do my grocery shopping and it was still guess work without proper labeling.

We have the right to know what is in our foods. Please make the right choice and support GMO labeling.